

Swing Door MSF721

AREAS OF USE

Steel solid swing door can be used in galleys and other internal areas where easy movement between two areas (as restaurant, cafe, etc.) is required.

CERTIFICATE OF CONFORMITY

Swing door is a C class door according to IMO and SOLAS requirements.

PROPERTIES

Swing door is made from steel sheets with sandwich construction with trimlists around the 32mm door leaf.

Steel solid swing door has flat door leaf design with finger protection gasket.

Special AISI316 slim swing hinge is used for easy opening. It is also possible to order a swing door without hinges.

DIMENSIONS

Door frame is 50mm deep.

Door weight: 25kg/m²

FINISHING

Standard door finish is wet paint.

In addition stainless steel (brushed or polished), PVC covered steel and laminate or other design finishes can be used.

EXTRAS

The door can be fitted with different mechanical locks systems, push- and kick plates.

Door can be equipped with rectangular, round or oblong vision panel.

